(Updated November 2023)

Diocesan Priesthood In A Synodal Church: The Year of Vocations to the Diocesan Priesthood began on Vocations/Good Shepherd Sunday April 30th 2023. This is a new drive for vocations launched by the Irish bishops which aims to start conversations on the beauty of the vocation of priesthood within families, parish communities as well as among priests.

It is planned to host events each month over the twelve-month period in parishes and at pilgrim sites around the country, and to provide resources for homes and schools. See details on next page.

Bishop Alphonsus Cullinan of Waterford & Lismore Diocese who is Chair of the Irish Bishops' Council for Vocations explained, "Everyone has a vocation, but this year is specifically about prayer for vocations to the diocesan priesthood....From speaking to newly ordained priests, there is a strong correlation between their calling and the influence and encouragement received from a priest who had previously spoken to them about their ministry, about taking the risk for Christ. One of the objectives of this Year of Vocations is to start conversations within families, with priests and in parish communities on the beauty of the vocation of priesthood.”

Prayer For Vocations:

Heavenly Father,
We ask you to send labourers into your harvest and to bless all who strive to listen to your voice.

Inspire, in the hearts of men and women, vocations to the priesthood, diaconate and consecrated life.

Bless our families with a spirit of generosity, so that those whom you call have the courage to give themselves to your Church in faith.

Send workers into Your great harvest so that the Gospel is preached, the poor are served with love, the suffering are comforted, and Your people are strengthened by the sacraments.

We ask this through Jesus Christ,
our Lord.

Amen.
